Property Description

This new, intimate residence blends harmoniously into the resort's decor. Its beautifully crafted architecture, inspired by the codes of Chamonix's identity and the Art Deco and Art Nouveau movements, reinforces its timeless character. A guarantee of value for your property.

Paradis offers prestigious new flats with private terraces offering, depending on their location, a view of Mont Blanc, the Brévent chain or the Aiguilles de Chamonix.

Most of the terraces are ideally south or west facing, to ensure maximum sunshine.

The residence has a secure basement car park and a bicycle room.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

For more information take a look at our buying guide, our french mortgage and euro currency exchange pages.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
