Property Description

Located in the center of Pommiers, this old chapel steeped in history offers a Carrez surface area of 190m², with a 50m² garden and a terrace. From the moment you enter, the charm operates.

The living room, with its very high ceilings, offers a volume of 80m² thanks to its open kitchen with quality services. On the same level, two bedrooms share a bathroom. Upstairs, an unusual lounge with its glass walkways will delight lovers of reading or sharing with friends.

Quietly, a master suite has a bathroom and also a shower room. A magnificent dressing room completes the ensemble. Finally, the 50m² south-facing garden with storage space will offer increased light throughout the day. A second terrace in the shade will be appreciated in summer.

The old character, the central location and the condominium with swimming pool and tennis court are undeniable assets.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
