Property Description

Located on the heights of Propières, this house of approximately 160 m² with a breathtaking view is built on a plot of 1880 m².

The entrance leads to a fitted and functional kitchen open to the spacious dining room.

The large French windows provide plenty of light and open onto direct access to the terrace with a breathtaking view.

The corridor leads to an office and a television room. Three bedrooms share a bathroom, a games room completes this sleeping area.

Finally, the garage as well as the large basement can accommodate several vehicles.

The numerous arrangements and storage on this level, as well as the technical room, can be optimized.

This bright and well-maintained house will seduce you with its location and exceptional view.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
