Property Description

Located in Saint Georges de Reneins, in a natural and peaceful environment, this beautiful residence offers a warm living environment in a small preserved hamlet, ideal for lovers of nature and authenticity.

A charming little path provides access to the property, and opens onto a magnificent garden with swimming pool. Continuing on, a large open barn perfectly complements the charm of this bucolic exterior, ideal for moments of relaxation and sharing. From the entrance, the spacious living spaces, magnified by their cathedral ceiling and their large bay windows providing beautiful light throughout, are designed for family well-being and the welcome of guests.

A fitted kitchen opens onto a large dining room completed by a bar and a warm living room. The tiles and beams bring character and authenticity. The layout of the ground floor is optimized by an office (which can be converted into a bedroom) and a perfectly appointed master suite with its bathroom, dressing room, and benefiting from its own access to the terrace.

A magnificent stone staircase provides access to the sleeping area, made up of four spacious bedrooms sharing a bathroom. On this same level, a mezzanine stands out as a welcoming relaxation space. A beautiful cellar completes the functionality of this unique property. This house, offering comfort and calm in an enchanting setting in Beaujolais, is ideal for both a primary residence and a secondary residence.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
