Property Description

It is in an authentic and privileged setting that this renovated farmhouse is located, built on a plot of 725m2. Halfway between Lyon and Villefranche-sur-Saône, the house offers 170m2 of living space, ideal for a family looking for peace and serenity.

Past the old porch, the magic happens. The garden, flat and entirely walled, could easily accommodate a future swimming pool near the terrace. Inside, the character is present thanks to old materials such as stone and wood. The ground floor is dedicated to the living space, completely open-plan, where open kitchen, dining room and living room come together, organized around the wood stove. The first floor accommodates three bedrooms sharing a newly renovated bathroom.

As for the last level, it offers a spacious master bedroom with bathroom and shower. Independent outbuildings offer this house great renovation potential, for additional bedrooms, the creation of a studio or even hosting a liberal activity. Just 20 minutes from Lyon, this rare property, combining harmony and elegance, will appeal to lovers of tranquility and charm.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of ours agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
