Property Description

Located in the very center of the very dynamic town of Couzon au Mont d'Or, a few meters from the church and all its amenities, this fully renovated 184m2 house is built on a 715m2 plot. The entrance opens onto a main level where the living room of more than 60m2, the real central core of this house, consists of a fully equipped contemporary kitchen facing a huge living / dining room, all illuminated by four large windows, thus bringing to this room a constant luminosity. A corridor leads to a first bedroom, a bathroom and a real master suite with dressing room and private bathroom. The lower level hosts a real summer kitchen and two additional bedrooms sharing a large bathroom. A last attic level of 105sqm (including 29sqm carrez) can also be rehabilitated to create an additional bedroom, a games room or a home cinema lounge depending on your desires. The renovation, the luminosity and the location in the town center are, without a doubt, the assets of this house. A double garage. Parking for several vehicles in the yard.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
