Property Description

Located in the town of Villefranche sur Saône, this new house has a living area of 106m².

On the ground floor, the 40m² living room, bathed in light throughout the day, opens onto a future kitchen at the buyer's expense. A master suite with bathroom and dressing room will allow living on one level. A storeroom and a toilet complete this level.

Upstairs, three bedrooms share a bathroom and a toilet. This house offers quality services: high-end tiling, heat pump with heated floors on both levels, and air conditioning in the living room. DPE in progress

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
