Property Description

This top floor apartment, nestled in an ideal location, offers unobstructed views from its 3 private terraces and offers a spacious living space and high-end amenities to meet all your needs.

The living room, complete with a completely renovated kitchen, benefits from a generous volume and increased brightness thanks to triple exposure. An exceptional 60 sqm terrace completes this space. On the night side, children have 3 generous bedrooms with dressing rooms. A bathroom and a 10m2 terrace embellish this first part.

Finally, the 23 sqm master suite, with dressing room, bathroom and 10 sqm terrace, offers parents looking for privacy a dedicated space. In addition, a double private garage will house your vehicles, while a 3.26 sqm cellar will offer you additional storage space. Highlighted by its location, its calm and its pleasant volumes, this top floor apartment is worth the detour.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
