Property Description

This Renaissance castle, restored in the 19th century in the style of Viollet-le-Duc, has neo-Gothic façades and roofs in beautiful condition. 15 minutes from Place Bellecour, it offers an impressive panorama stretching to the Alps and a wooded, enclosed and secure park of 1.6 hectares. It is behind a unique and preserved architecture that the entire estate has been shared out in co-ownership, offering everyone a share of the heritage and family history that it represents. The duplex apartment consists of three living rooms of more than 90 sqm, on the garden level, they still open onto the terrace which ends above the city, giving itself a private garden of more than 80 sqm. Upstairs, three large bedrooms with bathroom and shower room for more than 80m². The habitat has preserved the authenticity and quality of the 18th and 19th century decor: parquet, terrazzo, fireplaces and ornaments, highlight beautiful volumes. Formed on 2 floors, this apartment has been forced to some modifications of use, which can be improved. It will lend itself willingly to new designs bringing more functionality to this space with refined contours. Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
