Property Description

Located near the confluence of the Rhône and the Saône, this 96sqm apartment is located on the seventh and top floor of a perfectly maintained condominium. From the entrance, the place invites us to calm and relaxation.

Redesigned and renovated by an architect, the apartment is organized around a living room bathed in light and entirely turned towards the outside. Facing west, the latter includes a living room area as well as a dining area and a semi-open kitchen, fully fitted and equipped. The whole benefits from a pleasant loggia and offers us a breathtaking view of the Rhône as well as the wooded park located below.

The night area consists of a master suite with double dressing room and private bathroom as well as two comfortably sized bedrooms, each with its own storage space, a bathroom with toilet and an individual toilet. The quality renovation, the unobstructed view, the careful decoration as well as the exteriors are undeniably the major assets of this property and make it an ideal place to live. The whole is equipped with air conditioning. A closed box garage and basement is offered in addition.

A cellar completes the property.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
