Property Description

It is in the heart of Croix-Rousse that this 1930s house is revealed, completely renovated, offering 172 sqm of living space, with terrace and patio. The history of Croix-Rousse resonates in this building located a few steps from Place du Commandant Arnaud. From the entrance, the solid wood staircases give character to this family home carefully renovated while retaining the elegance of yesteryear. The main level consists of a beautiful living room with an open kitchen with high-end renovation, harmoniously mixing old and contemporary materials. A terrace and a patio extend this living space, creating an ideal setting to enjoy the beautiful days. The first level accommodates two beautiful bedrooms sharing a bathroom as well as a real master suite with dressing room and shower room. The second and last level, entirely open plan, currently accommodates a bedroom with shower room and an office space that can be rearranged according to needs. The proximity of amenities and schools makes this house the ideal home for a family wishing to live in peace and quiet while being in the city. A 56sqm basement with cellar, workshop and laundry room. A double garage. Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
