Property Description

Located in Caluire, in a quiet and sheltered area, this old loft-style apartment of 119sqm (101sqm Carrez law) is the result of the renovation by an architect of a former workshop and benefits from a 21sqm terrace.

The entrance opens onto the main level where the high-end and fully equipped kitchen faces the living/dining area. The whole takes place under more than four meters of height and is extended by a bucolic terrace of 21sqm.

Overlooking this magnificent living room, the first level accommodates a completely open-plan office space and provides access to the upper levels respectively composed of two bedrooms sharing a bathroom, then two last bedrooms which have a shower room as a link.

The calm coupled with the location, the renovation and the volumes make this loft a unique place. Two covered parking spaces. A cellar.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
