Property Description

‘Les chalets de Tirecorde’ is a project to build three chalets nestling in the heights of the Grabilles district. These chalets blend in perfectly with their surroundings, and have been designed to preserve the resort's typical mountain architecture.

Just 5 minutes from the village centre and close to the slopes, they boast breathtaking views and a quiet, private location.

Chalet B, with a floor area of around 224 sq.m, has a spacious first-floor living area with open-plan kitchen, a 73 sq.m living room with fireplace and access to the terrace with panoramic views of the surrounding mountains.

The second floor comprises a master bedroom with dressing room and access to the balcony, a shower room and separate toilet, and two double bedrooms, each with its own shower room and toilet. On the ground floor, a bedroom, a relaxation area with sauna and jacuzzi, a laundry room and a garage.

* Sale under the VEFA scheme / *Reduced notary fees

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
