Property Description

Situated in the Udrezants, an attractive area of Morzine that contains many traditional Savoyard farmhouses and buildings, just five minutes walk from the centre of Morzine and 280m from the Pleney to Prodains bus route.

This bus route provides excellent access to the mountain on both the Avoriaz-Chatel-Morgins-Champéry side and the Les Gets-Morzine side.

In a sunny southwest facing position with open views of the Pleney ski slopes from the sunny terrace and garden.

With 6 bedrooms and 4 bathrooms the chalet can easily sleep 12 or more people, with a living room and separate kitchen occupying the lower floor. The living room has a log fireplace and doors that open onto the terrace.

Snow equipment and bikes can be stored in the large cellar that doubles as a utility room. Space to park 2 cars in front of the chalet plus a good sized garage.

The property offers good potential to update and renovate, adding value by adding to and rejigging the use of the space.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
