Property Description

A spacious semi-detached farmhouse in the La Grange district of Morzine, close to the free ski bus stop for easy access to the center.

The upper part of the property boasts spacious living areas with open-plan kitchens. High ceilings and exposed beams add traditional charm to this chalet. There are also five bedrooms, five bathrooms, a covered balcony, separate WCs, a laundry room and storage space.

On the lower floor, the property features a 2-bedroom apartment with cabin area, its own living room and kitchen, as well as a studio with kitchen and bathroom.

An ideal property for a family looking for large spaces, with the possibility of benefiting from rental income. The property is ideally situated for maximum sunshine, with a large garden and beautiful mountain views.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

For more information take a look at our buying guide, our french mortgage and euro currency exchange pages.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
