Property Description

A former Napoleonic farmhouse, rebuilt and renovated, Chalet Gueret is a very well built and well appointed property with an attractive traditional style and high quality finish throughout the living areas and bedrooms. With 8 bedrooms and 7 bathrooms, it can easily accommodate a large family and friends. The ground floor comprises a two-bedroom flat with its own living room and separate entrance.

On the ground floor, there is a large living room with a wood-burning fireplace and library area, as well as a breakfast room and separate kitchen.

The main entrance hall gives access to the stairs leading to the next level, to the flat, but also to an office, a sauna with shower, a TV/games room and a separate toilet.

The location at the top of the village of Essert Romand, next to Morzine, guarantees beautiful open views over the valley and a quiet environment on a quiet road with very little through traffic.

The chalet backs onto open fields that will never be developed, and a hollow in the mountains gives it plenty of sunshine in the evenings. It is set in 1677 square metres of land, with a garden, a large sun terrace and a heated swimming pool with electric cover.

The basement houses a large laundry room, plenty of storage space for snow equipment and bikes, a storeroom and a wine cellar.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

For more information take a look at our buying guide, our french mortgage and euro currency exchange pages.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
