Property Description

This magnificent chalet, located in the heart of the alpine village of La Côte d'Arbroz, just a few minutes from Morzine, offers splendid mountain views from its south-facing balconies and living areas. Renovated from a traditional Savoyard barn, it has 5 en suite bedrooms, 3 of which have separate lounge and terrace areas. The main living room, with its traditional beams and double height, has an open-plan kitchen, woodburning stove and sunny balcony terrace. This level also includes a terrace for entertaining, two additional bedrooms, a TV room and a mezzanine. The property includes a large garage, ski room, mini 'mazot' cottage and wine cellar, with driveway space for three cars.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

For more information take a look at our buying guide, our french mortgage and euro currency exchange pages.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
