Property Description

Les Chalets du Chevril, in the heart of Val d'Isère, is a subtle blend of tradition and modernity, delighting visitors with its upscale amenities, intimate character and ideal location.

The nine apartments in this residence, designed by a leading name in local architecture, harmoniously combine absolute comfort with authentic charm. Wood, stone and large windows, combined with generous floor space, give them a true chalet feel, right in the center of the resort.

A superb, light-filled 174.2sq.m penthouse with west-southeast exposure features four en suite bedrooms, two mountain nooks and a large living room with unobstructed views of the village and mountains. Four parking spaces, a ski locker and a bike room complete the features of this property.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

For more information take a look at our buying guide, our french mortgage and euro currency exchange pages.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
