Property Description

In the heart of unspoilt countryside, this unique property comprises a log cabin with a total surface area of approx. 422 sq-m and 5 bedrooms. Nestled on 8000 sq-m of farmland and part of which is constructible. From the large outdoor terrace with its relaxation area and swimming pool, there are uninterrupted views of the Mont Blanc Massif and the Fiz mountain range.

The interior of the chalet will transport you into a purely traditional atmosphere, thanks in particular to its log architecture, but will also take you on a journey thanks to its subtle, refined and warm décoration.

The 180° view, the serenity of the surroundings and the charm of this family home will immediately make you fall in love!

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

For more information take a look at our buying guide, our french mortgage and euro currency exchange pages.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
