Property Description

Overlooking the surrounding valleys, this pleasant village house offers a perfect pied-a-terre for a family in the 3 Valleys, whatever the season!

It is composed of a small apartment with a bedroom and a bunk area, which offers a nice rental income, and a house on the last 2 floors.

The south-facing terrace is a perfect spot to enjoy this quiet village, unless you prefer to overlook the valley on the second terrace below.

As you enter, you will step into the fully-equipped kitchen that opens onto the living-room and its wonderful views on the mountains. 2 bedrooms and a bathroom complete that floor. Upstairs, under the brand-new roof, a bedroom with ensuite shower-room and a large space to be converted according to your needs: game room, dormitory to host friends etc.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

For more information take a look at our buying guide, our french mortgage and euro currency exchange pages.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
