Property Description

Boulevard des Belges, formerly Boulevard du Nord, is a wide, upscale avenue in the 6th arrondissement of Lyon, lined with beautiful buildings and private mansions that reflect the eclecticism of Lyon architecture from the end of the 19th century.

This is where this 140m² apartment and its 35m² terrace are located, in the former stables of the Parc de la Tête d'Or.

Renovated in a resolutely contemporary style, it benefits from vast volumes and incredible brightness. Access is via the ground floor, where a bedroom that has nothing to envy in luxury hotels has a bathroom. On the 1st level, the vast living room is revealed. Under a beautiful high ceiling, the 70m² accommodates a living room, lounge and open kitchen. The numerous openings provide constant light to the whole and allow on one side, access to a 35m² terrace and on the other, a direct view of the Tête d'Or park. Upstairs, taking place under the ridge, the master suite of more than 35m² consists of a bedroom, a sumptuous bathroom and a dressing room.

Renovated by a master's hand, this exceptional apartment benefits from all the codes of luxury.

Estimated annual energy cost for standard use between EUR2,740 and EUR3,780

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
