Property Description

Ideally located in the commune of Bois d'Oingt, this 410m2 villa, built on a plot of 2415m2, benefits from an exceptional view and ideal exposure throughout the day.

On the ground floor, a spacious living room opens onto a terrace offering a breathtaking view. A closed kitchen and a master suite with dressing room and shower room complete this floor. Upstairs, three bedrooms share a shower room. In addition, this floor offers several additional spaces that can be fitted out according to your needs, such as an office, a cinema room or a multipurpose room of 85m². At the level of the double garage, an office, a cellar and storage spaces offer additional functionality to this property.

As a bonus, a gîte with independent access offers a beautiful living room with open kitchen, as well as two bedrooms and two shower rooms. Exceptional view, generous volume and brightness are the strong points of this property.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
