Property Description

This chalet, with a total surface area of around 190 sqm on three levels, combines Alpine tradition and practicality. It embodies the spirit of the mountain chalet, with generous space and quality features in the heart of the 3 Valleys. Situated 1.5 km from the ski slopes, this property is in the charming hamlet of Saint-Marcel, renowned for its authenticity and calm. The village, served by shuttle buses, is home to the Michelinstarred La Bouitte restaurant and offers an incomparable quality of life all year round.

As soon as you enter, you'll be won over by the spacious living room, with its exposed beams, fireplace and south-west facing, creating a warm and welcoming atmosphere. The adjoining large terrace offers exceptional mountain views.

The chalet has six bedrooms, each with its own private bathroom or shower room. Three of the bedrooms have southwest-facing balconies with unobstructed views. The other three rooms open onto a garden, sheltered from view and ideal for spending time outdoors.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
