Property Description

Discover Céléria, a new development with top-of-the-range facilities at the gates of Méribel. Its location allows it to be close to the centre of Méribel, but also to enjoy the peace and quiet of the mountains. The residence is located in the Gittaz district, a few minutes from the centre of Méribel and all amenities, but also enjoys the proximity and tranquillity of the surrounding mountains.

An electric vehicle is provided with each chalet and will take you to the ski lifts, just a few hundred metres from the development.

Le Célénia is a hamlet of 7 chalets with a Savoyard architecture. They were designed by a famous architect, Antoine Barbeyer, renowned in the Northern Alps.

Future buyers can also be accompanied and advised in the personalisation of their property by a professional interior decorator.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
