Property Description

Built last year and finished to a really high standard, this property is perfect for a family looking for a base from which to enjoy the very best of winter and summer mountain life, with a big garage, perfect for parking a car and leaving room for many bikes, skis, and snowboards.

Just next to a free ski bus stop that takes you into the centre of Morzine and to the Super Morzine and Pleney ski lifts it should also provide really good rental appeal.

A 3 bedroom chalet providing a large open plan living area with a really good kitchen, a spacious dining area and a comfortable lounge, all opening on to a very sunny private terrace.

On the upper level is a master bedroom with ensuite, then two bedrooms sharing a bathroom.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

For more information take a look at our buying guide, our french mortgage and euro currency exchange pages.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
