Property Description

The new Bois des Ours development enjoys a prime location in the Rond-Point des Pistes neighborhood, offering ski-to-door access to the 3 Valleys and panoramic views of the resort center and the Roc de Fer. The project, signed by a great name in mountain architecture, expresses the art of living unique to Meribel: a play of volumes and roofs, delicately aged wood cladding, large windows that let in light, balconies and terraces that let the eye wander towards the landscape.

Discover this spacious apartment for sale and invest in a sought-after area of Méribel. With a surface area of 160.8 sq.m, it comprises a spacious living room with a cathedral ceiling over 4 metres high, three double bedrooms, two of which are en suite, a mountain corner, a separate bathroom and a separate WC. There are also a sauna and wine cellar. Two covered parking spaces, two ski lockers and a cellar complete this property. There's also a terrace where you can relax after a great day's skiing in the 3 Vallées ski area.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
