Property Description

Discover this spacious, bright apartment with approximately 122 sqm of living space, ideally located in Europe's highest resort. Spread over 4 floors, it boasts a generous floor area and an ideal layout for holidays with family or friends. The apartment's location is also a major advantage, with easy access to the slopes and shops.

Level 0 features a spacious entrance hall and a private sauna with shower for relaxing after a day on the slopes. There is also a storage area.

Level 1: a bright living room with a separate, fully-equipped kitchen and WC. The balcony accessible from this level offers panoramic views of the surrounding mountains.

Level 2: two comfortable bedrooms, a bathroom, a shower room and a separate toilet.

Level 3: a spacious room with two water points.

The flat faces due south-west, allowing you to enjoy natural light throughout the day.

High rental potential for this property.

Please note that the flat is sold under a SEP (Joint venture) until 2026.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
