Property Description

Discover this magnificent 3 bedrooms apartment with mountain corner (Carrez surface area of around 83.8 sq.m).

It is ideally located on the first floor of a prestigious residence in the heart of Mont d'Arbois, an exceptional site overlooking the village of Megève and offering the rare advantage of being close to the Megève golf course and ski slopes, providing easy access to leisure and outdoor activities.

This flat features Alpine architecture in harmony with the mountain landscape. The combination of refinement and authenticity suggests particular attention to detail, both in terms of design and the top-of-the-range materials used.

The layout has been carefully thought out to optimise the use of space, and the south-west-facing terrace extension offers the chance to enjoy the surrounding views.

The entire programme is focused on creating a superior residential experience, with a wellness area and underground parking.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
