Property Description

It's in the village center and the ski slopes of Saint-Martin de Belleville that you will find this beautiful, typically Savoyard chalet where charm and comfort reign.

With a surface area of more than 175 sq.m spread over 4 levels, it offers all the services for a wonderful stay in the mountains.

It offers 7 double bedrooms en suite, a complete level dedicated to the living space with a large equipped kitchen open to a large dining room and a south-facing living room with its beautiful terrace. The ground floor is fitted out with a large ski room (and its shoe warmer wall), a TV lounge area and a laundry room. A rarity to discover in the heart of the Belleville Valley.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
