Property Description

Located in the very center of Bourgoin-Jallieu, this charming renovated duplex of 137m2 with balconies, is located on the 2nd and last floor of an old building. The entrance opens onto a magnificent living/dining room with exposed beams and solid parquet flooring. It benefits from several openings which provide constant brightness throughout the day. The mix of old and new in the kitchen brings a certain charm. On the same level, a balcony overlooking the kitchen and a laundry room take place. Upstairs, three bedrooms share a bathroom. One of them benefits from an alcove converted into a dressing room and a balcony. The location of this property in the very center, the quality renovation, and the charm of the old make this atypical property a real favorite. Property subject to the status of co-ownership: 2 Annual Charges: EUR495 DPE in progress

Condominiums of 2 units (No proceedings in progress).

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
