Property Description

This charming ancient presbytery dating to 1810 has recently undergone an external refurbishment in 2023 with the installation of a new heating and drainage system, double glazed windows and doors, insulation, and is immediately habitable with 5 bedrooms and bright and spacious living areas.

The original character and charm of this old Presbytery are conserved, the spacious attic of 60m² is floored, insulated and ready for the final touches. The house is cleared of furniture and ready for your personal decoration. Coupled with its charm and recent modifications, and a garden with open views, this property offers many possibilities.

Village and Location.

The property is situated in a small traditional village and is located down a small rural lane towards open fields. The village of Ecutigny is close to Bligny sur Ouche which provides first commerce and only 30 minutes from the vineyards around the wine town of Beaune. Dijon and its abundant commerce and train station is easily reached at 40 minutes.

Property details.

Ground Floor: From the exterior, you can access the property directly to the salon or through a side door leading to an internal and private courtyard. In the courtyard is access to the house, to a storage and wine cellar, the boiler room and a spiral staircase connects you to the 5th bedroom which overlooks the interval courtyard.

In the entrance hall is a charming wood staircase connecting the upper floor, a substantial wood stove, local stone floor, and access to the Salon and kitchen. The salon offers a stone fireplace (open fire), oak beamed ceiling and tall windows. From the salon, you access the dining room and then the kitchen.

The kitchen requires a personal touch and is fitted with basis utilities.

The first upper floor offers five bedrooms.

Bedrooms 1 (with fireplace) and bedroom 2 are linked with a walk-in dressing cupboard. Bedroom 3 is independent with provisions for an ensuite shower room. In addition, bedrooms 4 and 5 are smaller bedrooms in the side annexes of the property, both overlooking the internal courtyard. Bedroom 5 is particularly charming.

From the hall, there is access to a shower room with toilet and a second toilet.

All rooms have, either parquet or terracotta tiles flooring and tall windows with views.

The second upper floor (renovated attic) comprises two interlinked rooms. Both fully insulated and boarded, wired for electric facilities and heating radiators. The final electrical connection remains to be completed.

This area has exposed oak beamed structures, roof, and wall windows. An ideal place for a creation of guest rooms, offices or cultural environment for art, crafts and music.

Throughout the property are charming features such as, a stone sink, terracotta tiled floors, Burgundy stone floors, attractive door architraves, and exposed oak beams.

All rooms and the attic have new double-glazed windows and doors.

Internal courtyard

Provides a private access to the house and other buildings, a great place for outdoor cooking and eating, growing small plants, and storage of firewood. Compact outdoor living!

Other buildings.

Storage cellar linked with wine cellar.

Facility room with heating boiler, water softener, electric meter and fuse box and room to store bikes.

Garden

A section of garden/land at 3 metres from the house provides a private walled garden with mature trees and other plants. There is a botanical water basin in progress of creation for a wildlife environment with plant filtration and a small area for swimming. Most of the structural work is completed and it only needs the finishing touches to be ready. From this garden area, there are great open views across farmland.

Communication/Internet

A fibre internet connection is possible in this village.

Heating

Air to water heating system to wall fixed radiators on the upper floor.

Ground floor underfloor heating system in salon, dining room and kitchen.

Second upper level: wiring provision in place for electric wall fixed radiators.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
