Property Description

You will love this 18th-century ancient house, beautiful inside and out, located in a small quiet hamlet between the wooded hills of the Autun crown and the meadows of the Drée valley.

Well-maintained and in excellent condition, it will not require structural work; only the interior decoration will need to be adapted to the buyers' taste. The ground floor features a spacious and bright living room with exposed beams and a wood-burning insert fireplace with turbo ventilation, a dining room, a furnished and equipped kitchen, a bathroom, a separate toilet, and a hallway serving as a cloakroom and cellar. A large mezzanine welcomes you on the first floor with a library and reading chairs; it opens onto two bedrooms, a dressing room, then the master bedroom, a bathroom, and a separate toilet. From the master bedroom, a wooden staircase leads up to the attic, which has been completely redone with new flooring and electricity installed. On the northeast side of the house, facing the gravel driveway, a spacious garage houses the laundry room, a workshop area, and will accommodate two cars if necessary. A wooden staircase provides a second access to another part of the attic with a window and electricity. The fortunate owners can also enjoy a very pleasant terrace with an awning on the southwest side of the house, overlooking a beautiful garden planted with fruit trees, a flowering pergola, and a wooden garden shed measuring 3 X 4 meters. The property also includes 1.3 hectares of meadows and woods, and an old barn that can be used as a car shelter or for storing equipment. Finally, sold with its furniture, it will be immediately habitable by its buyers.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
