Property Description

In a quiet village not far from Nolay, this 1972 dwelling house with garage overlooks a large enclosed garden with a river running through it and offers stunning views over the woods beyond.

The house is accessed via the garage beneath the house, or via an outside staircase leading to an entrance hall.

From here, two doors open onto a kitchen overlooking the garden and a large living room opening onto a balcony, with a dining area and a cosy sitting room with a wood-burning stove.

A corridor leads to four large bedrooms, a bathroom and a separate WC.

A door opens onto a staircase leading down to the ground floor, which has been converted into a summer kitchen, living room and shower room with WC.

From here, access is gained to the courtyard with its awning and down to the magnificent garden, its vegetable patch, its relaxation area by the river and its many trees.

A magical place to be discovered quickly!

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
