Property Description

Character Burgundy house, with two floors, semi-detached. A stone building with charm and an original interior design. This quality renovation does not require any more work. It comes with a 220 m2 garden and an independent apartment on the ground floor with private courtyard. Currently rented.

This semi-detached stone building is situated in a medieval village which counts many monuments registered at the French Historical monuments. Close to the vineyards of the Hautes-Côtes de Beaune and the Côte Chalonnaise. By preserving the complete structure and original roof beams and using quality materials and the knowledge of the local artisans, the owner and the architect have enhanced this house's unique character.

The building is divided into two parts. An apartment totally independant with one bedroom and a fitted kitchen. The main home on two levels with one large bedroom only. The garden is spacious and north facing but benefit from the sun shine from about 11 am. Open views on to the north-west and the Château of Montpatey. The heart of the village in only a few minutes walk with the town hall, the post office, a bank, and several shops like the baker and restaurants. A small grocery shop in the center and a small supermarket with a petrol station near by the health center where you can find the doctors and a pharmacy. The village is very lively with different associations and a rugby club. The medieval castle attract many visitors, especially in the summer. The TGV station in Le Creusot with links to Paris (1h20) and the South of France (Lyon in 42 min) is only 20 minutes away by car.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
