Property Description

Super renovation for this spacious townhouse, set in the Roman village of Corseul, between Dinan and the emerald coast. The property comprises on the ground floor ; an entrance hallway with vestibule, wc, spacious open plan living and dining area with fully fitted kitchen, opening onto the south facing sun deck, heated by a wood pellet stove, a parental suite with shower and dressing room, also opening onto the terrasse and very attractively landscaped gardens. Upstairs, a landing leads to three bedrooms, one with en suite shower room, a second with a private salon, all with balcony overlooking the countryside around Corseul.

Also, garage, laundry , a studio in the garden plus an ancient stone house with outbuilding to renovate as you wish - to create more space, or perhaps a gîte for rental income.

A super property, and certainly not to be missed !

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
