Property Description

In the heart of the city, magnificent religious building, built by the British colony of Dinan at the end of the 18th century, approximately 200 sqm of floor space, incredible space, lots of light, beautiful architectural elements, a rare opportunity! Ideal location, Located in Brittany, near the Emerald Coast and the Rance Valley and estuary, Dinan is a city with an incredibly rich architectural and natural heritage, it is good to live there. The city center is very dynamic with its historic heart that is almost entirely pedestrian, the family town is pleasant. We can reach nature by taking one of the most beautiful streets ever seen, rue du Petit Fort which leads us to the port of Dinan, spanned by the majestic viaduct, and it is from there that we can follow the river drowned in the hollow of the Valley. At the end of the 19th century, a British colony, attracted by so many attractions as well as the proximity of the coast, of St Malo, settled in the medieval city and built beautiful houses, villas, and a church. , the Anglican Church of DINAN, bought by the city in 1973, it has hosted concerts and exhibitions, and is now ready for a new chapter in its history. (5.66 % fees incl. VAT at the buyer's expense.)

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
