Property Description

A great mountain chalet in a small hamlet just above the village of La Côte d'Arbroz, 10 minutes drive from Morzine and a few minutes from the ski lifts at the back of Mont Chery, part of the Les Gets/Morzine ski network.

This area is well known for its excellent randonnée skiing and beautiful summer walks. The chalet has an atypical and interesting layout with a big bright living room that opens out on to the garden and terrace, 4 bedrooms and 3 bathrooms in the main part of the chalet and a separate studio flat with a double bed that folds into the wall, a kitchen and a bathroom. Parking for 3 cars out the front, a garage and utility room render the chalet very functional. Views are lovely and the property faces the south and south west giving excellent sunshine hours. The property was renovated in the last few years and is in great condition.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
