It has a population of just under 8,000. Pinoso, also known as El Pinos, is named after the pine trees that cover the region's mountain ranges. Pinoso offers a Spanish rural lifestyle, with no traffic lights, virtually no traffic, with the only traffic jams being caused by the tractors that transport the grapes to the Bodega. The fields are planted with vines, almonds and olives. In February, the fields are covered with pink almond blossoms.

Pinoso has many bars, restaurants and shops, a new 24-hour medical centre, dentists, two primary schools and a secondary school, a theatre. There is an excellent sports centre with outdoor swimming pools, tennis courts, football pitches and gymnasium, library and many other facilities, including a beautiful picnic area in the middle of the pine trees, with barbecues, seating and running water.
