The Torrevieja Pink Lake Natural Park, which adjoins the residential area, is a protected natural area of 3700 hectares whose environmental values have been recognized worldwide since 1972 with the RAMSAR agreement.

Ideal for sports, walking with children and pets.

Torrevieja is undoubtedly one of the best places to live: with a diversity of shops, health centers, especially thanks to the presence of the International Hospital where you will be treated in your language and the internationally recognized Quirón Clinic. In addition, it has a significant offer of shopping centres such as La Zenia Boulevard, water parks and unrivalled nightlife venues, such as pubs immersed in the marinas on the port quay.

If we talk about beaches, we highlight the Castaways, which is huge, without forgetting Campoamor, Playa Flamenca, Cabo Roig, Punta Prima, Aguamarina,... all with the "blue flag". For lovers of the sea, there is nothing better than an excursion along the coast, or, in the nearby Isla de Tabarca, the first marine reserve in Spain. They have all the necessary services and are accessible.
