Located on the Costa Blanca, it is 92 km from Alicante and 105 km from Valencia. Located between two capes (La Nao and San Antonio), it is bathed by the waters of the Mediterranean Sea and sheltered from continental winds by the Montgó mountain barrier. It therefore presents a contrasting landscape: coast, mountains and, inland, orchards and vineyards. Javea is a town traditionally dedicated to trade and fishing, but the variety of landscapes it offers, its mild climate throughout the year and its careful urban planning have made it one of the most important tourist sites in the Valencian Community, without losing the charm of the Mediterranean fishing villages. Javea (Xabia) is located 92 km from Alicante.
