New apartment in lovely Antony near Paris Ile de France

Close to the Croix de Berny and Antonympole business centres, it also attracts many companies. They appreciate its living environment and ease of access - notably the RER B and C trains - and contribute to the town's dynamism. Ideally located at the corner of the strategic Avenue de la Division Leclerc and the quiet Rue Langlois, the Allure residence allows you to enjoy the best of Antony.

IN THE HEART OF ONE OF THE MOST SOUGHT-AFTER DISTRICTS NEAR PARIS

The residence is close to shops and services, restaurants, schools (nursery, elementary, secondary and high schools) and transport.

Close to the city centre and green spaces in a truly ideal location. Majestic with its stapled and plastered stone facades, balconies and metalwork, this residence is an eye-catcher. Its nobility is further enhanced by a zinc roof topped with elegant finials. Intimate and refined, modern and connected, Allure combines the best of architectural tradition and technological innovation.

ANTONY IS A SERENE AND COMFORTABLE PLACE TO LIVE

This human-scale residence has been designed to make daily life as easy as possible. Each apartment has its own basement parking space, and the communal areas, including the bicycle garage, offer generous, fluid surfaces. At the heart of the luxury residence in Antony, the flats open onto a pleasant green space.

Most of the 30 apartments (from studio to 5-room) have a balcony or terrace, and all floors are brightly lit by large windows and bay windows.

A word from the architect

The residence appears as an emblematic figurehead at the intersection of Avenue de la Division Leclerc and Rue Langlois. It provides a transition between a city front on the scale of Greater Paris and a suburban neighbourhood to be preserved and enhanced. Its sober architecture is in keeping with a desire to ensure the durability of the structure. The play of volumes, the noble materials (glass, metal and stone) and the colours are all elements that enliven and distinguish the façades. Allure weaves an atypical link between this dense axis of the city and the traditional residential area.
