Property Description

This exceptional castle is situated on the edge of the Orléans forest and is steeped in the history of the knights of Saint Lazare of Jerusalem. The property boasts of an 8-hectare park adorned with pools and ponds. The pediments bear the coat of arms of the order of this commandery.

Upon entering this castle, you will be welcomed by a large entrance of 53 sqm with authentic wall woodwork and parquet flooring. This leads to a large living room, a small living room, a billiard room, and an office. All of these rooms enjoy through light, providing pleasant brightness throughout the day. Upstairs, a large landing gives access to a corridor leading to a living room, the sleeping rooms, as well as the bathrooms and shower rooms. The second floor, with a surface area of 137 sqm, requires renovation.

The castle also features a garage of approximately 70 sqm that can accommodate one or two vehicles. It is perfectly maintained and ideally located just 15 minutes away from downtown Orléans and 20 minutes away from an international airport. Additionally, it is only a 1 hour 15 minutes' drive from the gates of Paris and 15 minutes from a 27-hole golf course.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
