Property Description

A jewel of refinement and sophistication, this one-bedroom apartment of approximately 47m², nestled on the first floor of a prestigious residence, embodies elegance and luxury at their highest level. From the entrance, the vast living room, bathed in natural light, reveals a space that is both spacious and warm. The equipped kitchen, a true masterpiece of modernity and functionality, invites moments of conviviality and gastronomy.

Every detail has been thought of to create an atmosphere where luxury meets practicality. A bedroom and a bathroom offer modern equipment and noble materials for an unrivaled daily experience. Underground parking, a bicycle room and a landscaped park complete the optimal comfort of this property. The quality rehabilitation, the charm of the old, and its immediate proximity to shops and the beach, make this charming property a unique product in this prestigious area. Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
