Property Description

Nestled on the second and last floor of this beautiful, completely renovated building, this 82m2 apartment (103m2 on the ground) benefits from a calm and peaceful atmosphere.

The entrance leads to a very beautiful living room of 36m2 which extends into a pretty open-air patio. The elegant exposed beams and period parquet floors give an authentic and warm atmosphere to this living space.

The kitchen, although semi-equipped, combines functionality and aesthetics, preserving the harmony of the whole. Two comfortable bedrooms, one with its own shower room and a bathroom complete the layout, offering intimate and practical spaces. An office with a view of the patio completes the home. This apartment combines modernity and old-world charm, offering a comfortable and quiet living experience.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

For more information take a look at our buying guide, our french mortgage and euro currency exchange pages.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
