Property Description

Nestled in the heart of the popular Abatilles district in Arcachon, this Gaume style house embodies practical living within reach. Amenities such as shops and school are within easy walking distance, while the beach is less than a kilometer away.

With a surface area of 114m² on one level, this residence has an atypical layout, with all the rooms centered around the central kitchen. There you will find an equipped kitchen with its scullery, a spacious double living room of 45m², three generous bedrooms, one of which has a veranda giving access to the terrace, as well as a bathroom.

On the practical side, a 10m² garage, an entrance hall and a covered summer kitchen enhance the whole. In addition, a 40m² attic mezzanine including two bedrooms completes this property, without requiring any work.

This house benefits from an ideal location and a sound structure, making it a perfect choice for both a low-maintenance primary residence and a vacation home in a popular area, close to the beach.

DPE in progress.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
