Property Description

Ideally located between the Saint-Michel and Sainte-Croix districts, this freehold loft is nestled back from the street, guaranteeing total privacy. With its 175 square meters spread over three levels, this property offers three bedrooms with adjoining bathrooms, as well as a rooftop of almost 20 square meters facing west and a garage.

The discovery of the loft begins with a majestic living room, where an open and fully equipped kitchen welcomes light and offers an atmosphere of absolute calm.

The combination of polished concrete, the suspended staircase and raw wood gives this space a resolutely contemporary and sophisticated character. On the first floor, two bedrooms, each with its own bathroom, are arranged on either side of an elegant walkway, providing welcome privacy.

On the second level, a third bedroom with bathroom and dressing room completes this modern and comfortable living space. Finally, the sunny rooftop will be the ideal place to organize barbecues with friends or to relax and enjoy the sun.

With its central location in the heart of the city, its private garage and its high-end finishes, this loft represents a true rare pearl.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
