Property Description

This is certainly where you'll hear the butterflies flapping their wings Quiet but not isolated, on a hill on the edge of a small hamlet. Around 7 km from the shops and market of St Cyprien.

This 190m2 old and extended 'U'-shaped property with a small Zen pond in the front offers ground-level living with a large 54m2 living room with plenty of natural light through bay windows, cellar/garage, 2 bedrooms, one of which has an en-suite bathroom, shower room, games room/dormitory and dressing room. Garden level, which could be completely independent, entrance/veranda, boiler room, 2 bedrooms, shower room. Exit to the garden.

1st Floor: Bedroom or study. From the living room, view of this beautiful outbuilding with the Pigeonnier, used as a shed and workshop. The grounds of 3752m² are divided into a pretty garden of various species, fruit trees and undulating meadow with uninterrupted views.

And if I tell you heating by heat pump.....is not a detail

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
