Property Description

This beautiful apartment of approximately 110 m2 is located in the heart of the emblematic Chartrons district, in a beautiful stone building, on the third and last floor.

Distributed over two levels, the apartment opens onto a landing which leads to a large living room with double height and an open fitted kitchen. The numerous windows offer an unobstructed west-facing view. A large bedroom facing east is located on the same level, as well as a bathroom with laundry room, separate toilet and storage space. Upstairs, a landing with a library leads to two attic bedrooms, each with its own dressing room, one of which has a bathroom with toilet. A storeroom completes this property.

The complete and recent quality renovation elegantly highlights contemporary and period materials. The brightness, the careful details, and the proximity to all the shops make it a property typical of the sought-after spirit of Chartrons.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
