Property Description

Situated in a commanding position overlooking the valley, this property comprises a collection of old buildings dating back to the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries. It includes a house (an old renovated farm), cellar, and outbuildings, all set on approximately 12 hectares of land consisting of meadows and woods. Located near Saint-Astier, 20 minutes from Périgueux, and just 5 minutes from the A89 motorway entrance, this property boasts an excellent location and is well-suited for keeping horses or other animals.

The family house has been completely renovated with the assistance of an architect, offering around 300 sqm of living space with modern comforts such as a pellet boiler with silo, photovoltaic panels, a large tank for rainwater collection, and sanitation facilities that meet current standards. The living areas are spacious and bright, comprising an independent family kitchen with a fireplace, a large living room (53 sq.m) with parquet flooring and a fireplace, a second small living room, and an office room of approximately 30 sq.m. Above this room, there is a bedroom with a private bathroom and toilet. An old wooden staircase in the entrance leads to the upper floor, which includes four bedrooms (ranging from 13m² to 23 sq.m), a dressing room (or small room), and two bathrooms with separate toilets. At the top level, beneath the attic, there is a large recreation room (33 sq.m) with exposed beams and isolation.

To the west of the house, a delightful courtyard connects a charming French garden to the south and a garden to the west, which includes a swimming pool and provides access to the land with unobstructed views. The property also features three large outbuildings (90 sq.m, 100 sqm, and 200 sq.m) and a workshop area, adding to its character and appeal.
