Property Description

This 19th-century mansion, located a few minutes from Périgueux and set on a plot of over 6000 sqm (suitable for development), has been completely renovated in recent years. This character home offers 440 sq.m of living space and features spacious interior volumes across three levels, as well as a full basement level.

On the ground floor, there is a large entrance with a monumental staircase, columns, stained glass windows, 2 reception rooms, a very large fully equipped kitchen, a vestibule, and a bedroom. On the two upper levels, there are 8 spacious bedrooms and bathrooms.

Outside, there are two independent pavilions that can be converted into guest houses, along with an outbuilding.

The mansion has retained its original charm and features, including columns, mouldings, stained glass, parquet, and tiles, while benefiting from modern renovations such as heating, double glazing, electricity, and sewer systems. The building is very well-maintained, and no further work is required.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
